

To Be Successful In Life, You've Got To Form Some Pretty Strong Attachments.

Success in life depends on making attachments you can count on every day. Nobody understands this better than Scovill. After all, we've been crafting the world's toughest, most durable apparel and industrial fasteners for 200 years - fasteners for everything from blue jeans and sleepers to tonneau covers and boats. The secret to our enduring success?

A Total System approach that combines Scovill's GRIPPER®, DuraMark® and DOT® trademark fasteners with valuable design assistance, state-of-the-art attaching equipment, and superior service.

It all adds up to the strongest attachments ever made.
